The draft laying down instructions regarding correspondence with official Consuls & all classes, has been prepared after comparing the prevailing practice in Bombay, Madras, Burma ~~& Bengal~~ & Punjab. The instructions follow the practice obtaining in Burma. The main feature & notice is that the ~~present~~ privilege exercised by the official Cls at present of corresponding direct with Govt has been retained, and clear instructions given for the two other classes of mukhs. In Burma there are 2 classes of mukhs only & the name of them is portion 'A' class mukhs address communications ~~direct to~~ Govt. through Commrs, and 'B' class through
